ATTENTION-

My legs are all scratched from getting tangled in thorny vines while doing yard work. Life is like that. Situations and circumstances entangle us. The Psalmist reflected on this in Psalm 18.

SCRIPTURE SEARCH- (Utilizing the New International Version)

What was the Psalmist's situation in Psalm 18:4-5?

What did the Psalmist do in Psalm 18:6?

How did the Lord respond in Psalm 18:18?

Why was the Psalmist rescued in Psalm 18:19?

How did the Lord deal with the Psalmist in Psalm 18:20?

Notice what Jesus said of "righteousness" in Matthew's Gospel.

Matt 5:6/ Matt 5:10 /Matt 6:33 /Matt 13:43

What are the important principles of Psalm 18:25-26?

What does the Psalmist count on in Psalm 18:28?

How does this relate to Matt 5:16?

LESSON-

The Lord keeps the lamp of the righteous burning, we do not do it ourselves.

ILLUSTRATION-

Making decisions in the dark can lead to some regrettable consequences. Back in the days before electricity, a tightfisted old farmer was taking his hired man to task for carrying a lighted lantern when he went to call on his best girl. "Why," he exclaimed, "when I went a-courtin' I never carried one of them things. I always went in the dark." "Yes," the hired man said wryly, "and look what you got!"

Even in the darkness and insecurity of a national emergency, don't you think you should let the Lord keep your lamp burning?

PRAYER-

Heavenly Father, I desire Your righteousness first and foremost in my life, and, I depend on You to keep the lamp of righteousness burning in my life.
