TODAY'S SCRIPTURE -

Matt 21:12-17

12 Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.

13 "It is written," he said to them, "'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you are making it a 'den of robbers.'"

14 The blind and the lame came to him at the temple, and he healed them.

15 But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did and the children shouting in the temple area, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant.

16 "Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked him. "Yes," replied Jesus, "have you never read, "'From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise'?"

17 And he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night. NIV

DR. DAVID'S QUESTION(S)-

What was going on in the temple area in vs 12?

What should have been going on in the temple area according to vs 13?

Who came to the temple area in vss 14-15?

What did Jesus do for those who came in vs 14?

What did the priests see in vs 15?

What was their reaction in vs 15?

Why would they react this way?
